(Greensboro, NC.- July 2024) The W.D. Mohammed Islamic Center was awarded a Grant of $48,000.00 (15 passenger Van) from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter - day Saints. This Van will transport individuals to events and transportation for our Seniors of the East Greensboro Senior Nutritional Program. WDMIC would like to invite the Greensboro community to this Press Conference and Ribbon Cutting for this glorious celebration.

Invited guest are President Elder Bruce A. Carlson, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, The NC Governor Roy Cooper, Mayor Nancy Vaughn and Greensboro City Councilmembers, Mr. Shawn Belcher of Just Better Auto Dealership , Crystal Davis-Greensboro Community Activist/Advocate, Michelle Davis of Crime Stoppers, President Amatullah Yamini, Board Members, Resident Imam Abdel Nuriddin, Tracy Hansen Sharif, Program Director of the Senior Program, WDMIC Members, Seniors will be in attendance and additionally, Channel WFMY- Channel 2, Spectrum, Channel 12 and Fox 8.

Every day for 1½ years the Senior Nutritional Program Seniors attend Monday - Friday from 11:30AM-3:00PM in the Imam David K. Hasan Business & Culture Center. The Senior Nutritional Program is a division of WDMIC. The Seniors come to eat (Second Harvest meals), play games, polish nails, exercise, play musical instruments, dance, attend classes, entertain projects, converse, watch movies and just have fun.

Some of the talented retired Seniors are - Ms. Felicia Sanders, retired Childcare Educator/Medical Billing & Coding Specialist, Ms. Maggie Richmond, retired Certified Nursing Assistant, Ms. Linda Speaks, retired LPN, Ms. Mary Hill, retired Cosmetologist, Ms. Lisa Bell, former Certified Nursing Assistant, Ms. JoJo Scales, former Registered Nurse, Ms. Beverly Ritchie, retired Assistant Librarian and Mrs. Arnetta (Angel) McCraney, Notary/Educational Tutor. Many more attendees who are very talented will be in attendance. All these individuals provide resources for the unhoused (homeless),with the assistance of the Greensboro Police Department, other underrepresented seniors, teach classes, tutoring and assist youth. Now they get to ride around Greensboro, attend events, provide their educational practices, plant vegetables in the WDMIC Community Garden and place their crafts of Painted Rocks in the Garden, etc.

Come attend this entertaining event and learn how WDMIC and the Seniors continue to assist the East Greensboro Community with business ethics, provide food, sustainability and self-sufficiency.

To RSVP this event please contact Tracy Hansen via Cell (315) 876-2753 or Donna Lynem at Cell (336) 455-6019.
